WE INVITE YOU TO JOIN…

The Port of Wilmington Maritime Society (POWMS) is a non-profit apolitical membership organization dedicated to promoting economic development through the support of businesses in and around the Port. It acts as a liaison between port management and affiliated businesses, as well as local government and federal organizations. Membership is drawn from both the maritime and business communities.

Through membership with the Port of Wilmington Maritime Society your business can share in the growth and establish sound relations with the Port's business community.
